If you went to Jewish summer camp as a child and long to recapture that time in your life, or if you didn't, but have wondered what it was like, Camp Kesher is about as close as you can get. For four days, campers of all ages are immersed in Jewish community and study, and enjoy nature, sports, music, and crafts—away from everyday distractions and responsibilities. (No cooking!) Make this experience a gift for yourself and your family. All levels of Jewish knowledge and commitment are welcome.

2009 Scholar-in-Residence: Dr. Ron Wolfson

Dr. Wolfson has written a series of books on the Art of Jewish Living. Beginning with "The Shabbat Seder" in 1985, he has authored eight books, most recently "G-d's To-Do List." As Director of the Education Department at American Jewish University, Dr. Wolfson pioneered programs in Jewish education, creating the Educational Resource Center (ERC). He helped create the Whizin Center for the Jewish Future, a think tank dedicated to envisioning the future of Jewish life. His latest exciting creation is a graduate seminar in Experiential Education. He and his students have been developing a set of principles describing the components of excellent "experiences" by immersing themselves in the experiences themselves.
