

A Fun-Filled Multi-generational Weekend Of Jewish Experiences

HELD AT CAMP SEALTH
VASHON ISLAND

While at Camp Keshher:

- > Play, pray and celebrate Shabbat and Havdalah in a multi-generational community of Jews from the Puget Sound and beyond.
- > Adults can enjoy stimulating study sessions with a leading Jewish scholar while the kids attend Kids Camp.
- > Teens are Kids Camp counselors by day and have their own age-appropriate supervised social activities at night.
- > Kids enjoy a wide range of camp activities, including boating, archery, music, touch-tank and arts and crafts.
- > Everyone can join in evening activities including bedtime stories for the little ones, Israeli dancing, games, sing-alongs, and the best talent show ever.
- > Engage in your choice of workshops on crafts, book discussions, Challah baking, and many more taught by local Rabbis and community members.
- > Participate in recreational activities, including Ga-Ga, boating, nature walks, archery, a challenge course, softball, and volleyball.
- > See old friends and make new ones.
- > Play in the sand, read a book by the Sound or relax and chill.

Recapture the best parts of Jewish summer camp - or find out what you missed - on Vashon Island over Labor Day weekend. For over 18 years, Camp Keshher has brought together campers of all ages to be immersed in Jewish community and study, and enjoy nature, sports, music, and crafts - away from everyday distractions and responsibilities.

(No cooking!) Make this experience a gift for yourself and your family.

All levels of Jewish knowledge and commitment are welcome.

2016 Scholar-in-Residence: Rabbi Seymour Rossel

Rabbi Seymour Rossel's storytelling career began at the age of three when, according to witnesses, his mother stood him on a table during a party and fed him lines to recite. When Seymour is not lecturing on Israel, Holocaust, Bible, archaeology, spirituality, Jewish history, or Jewish education, he is reading, writing, breathing, and telling stories.

Seymour is the author of thirty-six books, including The Wise Folk of Chelm, Bible Dreams, The Essential Jewish Stories, The Torah: Portion-by-Portion, A Child's Bible, and A Thousand and One Chickens. He has edited and published over 300 books, working with dozens of distinguished Jewish authors.

Seymour is presently CEO of Rossel Counseling and Consulting, Inc. He lectured for the past eight years at Women's Institute of Houston. During that time, he spent five years as Rabbi of Congregation Jewish Community North of Spring, Texas. For many years, he served the American Reform movement (URJ) in a number of national positions including Director of URJ Press, Director of the Department of Education, Director of the Commission on Reform Jewish Education and Dean of the School of Education of Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, NY.

Seymour served on national boards for the Coalition for the Advancement of Jewish Education (CAJE), the Jewish Book Council, and the National Association of Temple Educators (now ARJE). You can learn more about Rabbi Rossel at his official web site (<http://www.rossel.net>).
